A. FOUNDATIONAL QUESTIONS

1. How does the University balance the civil liberty of privacy with its many values and obligations?

2. Do we have a single policy for everyone, or different policies for different communities and/or types of data?

3. Is incidental personal use a right, a privilege or something else?

4. What is the University’s level of risk tolerance, especially for regulatory compliance?

5. How does the University determine appropriate ownership of, and access to, data by individuals, campuses, the administration, The Regents and external entities?
